IFCA NEWSLETTER No 7, JUNE 2009

Saturday 26th & Sunday 27th
September 2009

The Ranch Hotel Motel - Sydney
Corner Herring & Epping Rds, Eastwood NSW

The Ferret Health Symposium is on again – this time in Sydney! We are delighted to be able to give you some details about the event, which promises 2 days of educational and entertaining presentations by veterinarians and ferret-knowledgeable people from Australia and overseas.

Cost? $129. This covers all presentations, morning and afternoon teas and lunches for both days.

There is an optional dinner on the Saturday night for an additional $40. This is a chance to mingle with guest presenters and other ferret lovers as well as enjoying a delicious 3-course meal served to you at your table.

Accommodation? Each room at The Ranch has one double and one single bed. The cost per night is $110 for up to two persons and $28 per night for each extra person. A continental breakfast is included. There are 2 trundle beds, which can be made available for anyone who needs more sleeping places in the room. IFCA has reserved all of the rooms for the Symposium so bookings for accommodation at The Ranch can only be made through IFCA when registering. Please do not contact The Ranch to try to book a room.

The number of rooms is limited, so interstate and overseas delegates will need to book early to be assured of a place to stay in the hotel. Delegates who wish to stay at another hotel or those who miss out on a Ranch room will need to arrange their own accommodation.

Raffles? Yes, each day we will be holding a new raffle. There are some lovely prizes, so don't forget to bring some spare change so that you can take part. We will also be having spot quizzes between presentations with some small prizes.

Subjects will include lymphoma, distemper, enrichment, ferrets & the law, teeth, overpopulation, case studies, and more!

Speakers will include Dr David Neck, Dr Tom Lonsdale, Bob Church, Dr Sandy Hume, Shirley Hewett, Shona Whaite, and more to come.
